

This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

- + Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.
- + Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.
- + Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.
- + Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

About Google Book Search

I.

THE Lord is in his holy temple : bring an offering, and come into his courts.

P. I was glad when they said unto me, Let us go into the house of the Lord.

M. O worship the Lord in the beauty of holiness : fear before him, all the earth.

P. I will come into thy house, O Lord, in the multitude of thy mercy ; and in thy fear will I worship toward thy holy temple.

M. Lord, who shall abide in thy tabernacle ? Who shall dwell in thy holy hill ?

P. He that walketh uprightly, and worketh righteousness, and speaketh the truth in his heart.

M. Great is the Lord, and greatly to be praised in the city of our God, in the mountain of his holiness.

P. Holiness becometh thine house, O Lord, forever.

M. Exalt the Lord our God, and worship at his holy hill ;

P. For the Lord, the Lord our God, is holy.

M. God is a spirit, and they that worship him must worship him in spirit and in truth.

P. For the Father seeketh such to worship him.

THY throne, O God, is established of old :
thou art from everlasting ;

P. And thy years are throughout all generations.

M. Of old hast thou laid the foundation of the earth ;

P. And the heavens are the work of thy hands.

M. They shall perish, but thou shalt endure ;

P. Yea, all of them shall wax old like a garment ;

M. As a vesture shalt thou change them, and they shall be changed ;

P. But thou art the same, and thy years shall have no end.

M. Lord, what is man, that thou takest knowledge of him ? Or the son of man, that thou makest account of him ?

P. For thou hast made him a little lower than the angels, and hast crowned him with glory and honor.

M. How excellent is thy loving kindness, O God !

P. Therefore the children of men put their trust under the shadow of thy wings.

M. From the end of the earth will I cry unto thee, O God.

P. When my heart is overwhelmed, lead me to the rock that is higher than I.

M. It is God that girdeth me with strength, and maketh my way perfect.

P. For who is God save the Lord? or who is a rock save our God?

M. Thou, O God, hast also given me the shield of thy salvation :

P. Thy right hand hath holden me up, and thy gentleness hath made me great.

M. I will sing praise to thy name, O thou Most High ;

P. For thy mercy is great unto the heavens, and thy truth unto the clouds.

M. Thy glory is above all the earth ; and thy truth endureth to all generations.

P. My times are in thy hand. I will be glad and rejoice in thee.

M. I will praise thee, O Lord my God, with all my heart ; and I will glorify thy name for evermore.

P. Every day will I bless thee ; and I will praise thy name for ever and ever.

M. Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life ;

P. And I will dwell in the house of the Lord for ever.

III.

HOW amiable are thy tabernacles, O Lord hosts !

P. My soul longeth, yea, even fainteth for courts of the Lord :

M. My heart and my flesh crieth out for living God.

P. When shall I come to thy house, ever thine altars, O Lord of hosts, my King, and God ?

M. Blessed is the man whose strength is thee ; in whose heart are the highways of Zion

P. Blessed are they that dwell in thy hou they will be still praising thee.

M. They go from strength to strength ; ev one of them in Zion appeareth before God.

P. O Lord God of hosts, hear my pray give ear, O God of Jacob.

M. Behold, O God, my shield, and look up the face of thine anointed.

P. For a day in thy courts is better than thousand.

M. I would rather be a doorkeeper in the ho of my God, than to dwell in the tents of wick ness.

P. For the Lord God is a sun and shield :

M. The Lord will give grace and glory :

P. No good thing will he withhold from them that walk uprightly.

M. & P. O Lord of hosts, blessed is the man that trusteth in thee.

IV.

GREAT and marvelous are thy works, Lord God Almighty.

P. Just and true are thy ways, thou King of saints.

M. Who shall not fear thee, O Lord, and glorify thy name?

P. For thou only art holy, for all the nations shall come and worship before thee.

M. From the rising of the sun unto the going down of the same, the Lord's name is to be praised.

P. All the ends of the world shall remember and turn unto the Lord,

M. And all the kindreds of the nations shall worship before thee.

P. For the kingdom is the Lord's, and he is the Governor among the nations.

M. & P. And it shall come to pass that from one new moon to another, and from one Sabbath to another, shall all flesh come to worship before me, saith the Lord.

V

O GIVE thanks unto the Lord ; for he is good :
for his mercy endureth forever.

P. O give thanks unto the God of gods ; for his mercy endureth forever.

M. O give thanks to the Lord of lords ; for his mercy endureth forever.

P. To him who alone doeth great wonders ; for his mercy endureth forever.

M. To him who by wisdom made the heavens ;
for his mercy endureth forever.

P. To him who stretched out the earth above the waters ; for his mercy endureth forever.

M. To him who made great lights ; for his mercy endureth forever :

P. The sun to rule by day ; for his mercy endureth forever :

M. The moon and stars to rule by night ; for his mercy endureth forever.

P. To him who divided the Red Sea into parts ; for his mercy endureth forever ;

M. And made Israel to pass through the midst of it ; for his mercy endureth forever.

P. To him who led his people through the wilderness ; for his mercy endureth forever :

M. With a strong hand, and with a stretched out arm ; for his mercy endureth forever.

P. Who remembered us in our low estate ; for his mercy endureth forever ;

M. And hath redeemed us from our enemies ; for his mercy endureth forever.

P. Who giveth food to all flesh ; for his mercy endureth forever.

M. & P. O give thanks unto the God of heaven ; for his mercy endureth forever.

VI.

GOD be merciful unto us, and bless us ; and cause thy face to shine upon us ;

P. That thy way may be known upon earth, thy saving health among all nations.

M. Let the people praise thee, O God ; let all the people praise thee.

P. For thou art great, and greatly to be praised ; and thy merciful kindness is great toward us.

M. O let the nations be glad and sing for joy : let the people rejoice in thy mercy :

P. For thou shalt judge the people righteously, and govern the nations upon earth.

M. Let the people praise thee, O God ; let all the people praise thee.

P. Then shall the earth yield her increase ; and God, even our own God, shall bless us.

M. & P. God shall bless us ; and all the ends of the earth shall fear him.

VII.

I WILL lift up mine eyes unto the hills, whence cometh my help.

P. My help cometh from the Lord, who made heaven and earth.

M. Whence cometh wisdom? and where is the place of understanding?

P. The fear of the Lord is the beginning of wisdom, and to depart from evil is understanding.

M. Come, ye children, hearken unto me : I will teach you the fear of the Lord.

P. The angel of the Lord encampeth round about them that fear him.

M. Remember now thy Creator in the days of thy youth.

P. The desire of our soul is for thee, and the remembrance of thy name, O Lord.

M. O taste and see that the Lord is good.

P. How sweet are thy words unto my taste ! yea, sweeter than honey to my mouth.

M. Wherewithal shall a young man cleanse his way?

P. By taking heed thereto according to thy word.

M. Blessed are they that hear the word of God and keep it.

P. Thy word, O God, is a lamp unto my feet, and a light unto my path.

M. Order my steps in thy word; and let not any iniquity have dominion over me.

P. I have refrained my feet from every evil way, that I might keep thy word.

M. The glory of young men is their strength.

P. And in the Lord Jehovah is everlasting strength.

M. Rejoice, O young man, in thy youth; and let thy heart cheer thee in the days of thy youth.

P. We will rejoice in the Lord: we will joy in the God of our salvation.

M. It shall come to pass that I will pour out my spirit upon all flesh;

P. And all your children shall be taught of the Lord;

M. And upon my servants and my handmaids in those days will I pour out my spirit, saith the Lord.

P. And your sons and your daughters shall prophecy: your young men shall see visions.

M. Both young men and maidens, old men and children, let them praise the name of the Lord;

P. For his name alone is excellent: his glory is above the earth and the heavens.

VIII.

HEAR, O my son, the instruction of thy father and forsake not the law of thy mother;

P. For they are life to those that keep them and the years of thy life shall be many.

M. Receive instruction and not silver;

P. And knowledge rather than choice gold.

M. Wisdom is the principal thing; therefore get wisdom; and with all thy getting get understanding.

P. For the Lord giveth wisdom; out of his mouth cometh knowledge and understanding.

M. The Lord by wisdom hath founded the earth;

P. By understanding hath he established the heavens.

M. Get wisdom, get understanding, forget not.

P. For wisdom is better than rubies, and she shall bring thee to honor.

M. Forsake her not and she shall preserve thee.

P. Love her and she shall keep thee.

M. She shall give to thine head an ornament of grace;

P. A crown of glory shall she deliver to thee.

IX.

MY son, forget not my law, but let thy heart
keep my commandments ;

P. For length of days, and long life, and peace, shall they add to thee.

M. Be not wise in thine own eyes.

P. Fear the Lord and depart from evil.

M. Let not mercy and truth forsake thee ;
bind them about thy neck : write them upon the table of thy heart.

P. So shalt thou find favor and good understanding in the sight of God and man.

M. Happy is the man that findeth wisdom, and the man that getteth understanding ;

P. For the merchandise of it is better than the merchandise of silver, and the gain thereof than fine gold.

M. She is more precious than rubies.

P. All things thou canst desire are not to be compared unto her.

M. She is a tree of life to them that lay hold upon her :

P. Happy is every one that retaineth her.

M. Length of days is in her right hand, and in her left hand riches and honor.

M. & P. Her ways are ways of pleasantness, and all her paths are peace.

X.

GOD spake all these words, saying : I am the Lord thy God ;

P. Thou shalt have no other gods before me.

M. Thou shalt not make any graven images ;

P. Nor bow down to them, nor serve them.

M. Thou shalt not take the name of the Lord in vain ;

P. For the Lord will not hold him guiltless that taketh his name in vain.

M. Remember the Sabbath day to keep it holy :

P. Six days shalt thou labor and do all thy work ;

M. But the seventh day is the Sabbath of the Lord thy God ;

P. In it thou shalt not do any work.

M. Honor thy father and thy mother ;

P. That thy days may be long upon the land which the Lord thy God giveth thee.

M. Thou shalt not kill.

P. Thou shalt not commit adultery.

M. Thou shalt not steal.

P. Thou shalt not bear false witness.

M. Thou shalt not covet thy neighbor's house,

P. Nor anything that is thy neighbor's.

M. Thou shalt love the Lord thy God with all thy heart, and with all thy soul, and with all thy mind, and with all thy strength.

P. Thou shalt love thy neighbor as thyself.

XI.

O LORD, I have longed for thy salvation ; and thy law hath been my delight.

P. With my whole heart have I sought thee.
O let me not wander from thy commandments !

M. Give me understanding, and I shall keep thy law ;

P. Yea, I shall observe it with my whole heart.

M. Open thou mine eyes, that I may behold wondrous things out of thy law.

P. Deal bountifully with thy servant, that I may live, and keep thy word.

M. The law of thy mouth is better unto me than thousands of gold and silver.

P. Therefore I love thy commandments above gold, yea, above fine gold.

M. O how love I thy law ! it is my meditation all the day.

P. Great peace have they that love thy law : they shall not be brought into evil.

M. Make me to go in the path of thy commandments ;

P. So shall I keep thy law continually, for ever and ever.

XII.

BLESSED is the man that feareth the Lord that walketh in his ways.

P. Blessed are the undefiled in the way, who walk in the law of the Lord.

M. Blessed is the man that walketh not in the counsel of the ungodly,

P. Nor standeth in the way of sinners, nor sitteth in the seat of the scornful.

M. But his delight is in the law of the Lord;

P. And in his law doth he meditate, day and night.

M. And he shall be like a tree planted by the rivers of water,

P. That bringeth forth its fruit in its season.

M. His leaf also shall not wither,

P. And whatsoever he doeth shall prosper.

M. The ungodly are not so; but are like the chaff which the wind driveth away.

P. Therefore the ungodly shall not stand in the judgment,

M. Nor sinners in the congregation of the righteous.

P. For the Lord knoweth the way of the righteous; but the way of the ungodly shall perish.

XIII.

I WILL praise the Lord with my whole heart, in the assembly of the upright, and in the congregation.

P. The works of the Lord are great, sought out of all them that have pleasure therein.

M. His work is honorable and glorious; and his righteousness endureth forever.

P. He hath made his wonderful works to be remembered: the Lord is gracious and full of compassion.

M. He hath given meat unto them that fear him: he will ever be mindful of his covenant.

P. He sent redemption unto his people: he hath showed them the power of his works.

M. The works of his hands are verity and judgment: all his commandments are sure.

P. They stand fast for ever and ever, and are done in truth and righteousness.

M. He hath commanded his covenant forever:
holy and reverend is his name.

P. The fear of the Lord is the beginning of wisdom: a good understanding have all they that do his commandments.

M. & P. His praise endureth forever. Praise ye the Lord.

XIV.

A WAKE, awake, put on thy strength, O Zion put on thy beautiful garments, O Jerusalem the holy city.

P. For thus saith the Lord, Ye have sold your selves for nought and ye shall be redeemed with out money.

M. Therefore my people shall know my name

P. They shall know in that day that I am he that doth speak : behold, it is I.

M. How beautiful upon the mountains are the feet of him that bringeth good tidings, that pub lisheth peace :

P. That bringeth good tidings of good : that publisheth salvation : that saith unto Zion, The God reigneth.

M. Thy watchmen shall lift up the voice, with the voice together shall they sing ;

P. For they shall see eye to eye when the Lord shall bring again Zion.

M. Break forth into joy : sing together, y waste places of Jerusalem ;

P. For the Lord hath comforted his people
he hath redeemed Jerusalem.

M. The Lord hath made bare his holy arm in the eyes of all the nations ;

P. And all the ends of the earth shall see the salvation of our God.

XV.

ARISE, shine; for thy light is come, and the glory of the Lord is risen upon thee.

P. For, behold, the darkness shall cover the earth, and gross darkness the people;

M. But the Lord shall arise upon thee, and his glory shall be seen upon thee.

P. The nations shall come to thy light, and kings to the brightness of thy rising.

M. The glory of Lebanon shall come unto thee, the fir tree, the pine tree, and the box together;

P. To beautify the place of my sanctuary, and to make the place of my feet glorious.

M. I will make thy officers peace, and thine exactors righteousness.

P. Thy people shall be all righteous. A little one shall become a thousand, and a small one a strong nation.

M. Violence shall no more be heard in thy land, wasting nor destruction within thy borders;

P. But thou shalt call thy walls Salvation, and thy gates Praise.

M. The sun shall be no more thy light by day,

P. Neither for brightness shall the moon give light unto thee;

M. & P. But the Lord shall be unto thee an everlasting light, and thy God thy glory.

XVI.

BEHOLD thy King cometh unto thee! Hosanna to the Son of David!

P. Blessed is he that cometh in the name of the Lord! Hosanna in the highest!

M. The voice of him that crieth in the wilderness, Prepare ye the way of the Lord:

P. Make straight in the desert a highway for our God.

M. Every valley shall be exalted, every mountain and hill shall be made low.

P. The crooked shall be made straight, and the rough places plain.

M. The glory of the Lord shall be revealed and all flesh shall see it together.

P. The wilderness and the solitary place shall be glad.

M. The desert shall rejoice and blossom as the rose.

P. It shall blossom abundantly, and rejoice even with joy and singing.

M. The glory of Lebanon shall be given to it, the excellency of Carmel and Sharon.

P. They shall see the glory of the Lord and the excellency of our God.

M. Strengthen ye the weak hands and confirm the feeble knees:

P. Say to them that are of a fearful heart, Be strong, fear not :

M. Behold your God will come with a recompense and will save you.

P. Then the eyes of the blind shall be opened, and the ears of the deaf shall be unstopped :

M. Then shall the lame man leap as a hart, and the tongue of the dumb sing ;

P. For in the wilderness shall waters break out, and streams in the desert.

M. The parched ground shall become a pool,

P. And the thirsty land springs of water.

M. A highway shall be there, and a way :

P. It shall be called The way of holiness.

M. The unclean shall not pass over it :

P. The wayfaring men, though fools, shall not err therein.

M. No lion shall be there, nor shall any ravenous beast go up thereon.

P. It shall not be found there ; but the redeemed shall walk there.

M. The ransomed of the Lord shall return, and come to Zion with songs and everlasting joy upon their heads.

P. They shall obtain joy and gladness, and sorrow and sighing shall flee away.

M. & P. For, behold, I create new heavens and a new earth, saith the Lord.

XVII.

WHY seek ye the living among the dead? For he is not here, but is risen.

P. The Lord is risen indeed, and hath appeared unto Simon.

M. Now that the dead are raised, even Moses showed at the bush,

P. When he called the Lord, the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob.

M. He that is our God is the God of salvation and unto him belong the issues from death.

P. For he is not a God of the dead, but of the living; for all live unto him.

M. I am the resurrection and the life;

P. Whosoever liveth and believeth in me shall never die.

M. I am the way, the truth, and the life;

P. Because I live, ye shall live also.

M. In my Father's house are many mansions;

P. If it were not so I would have told you.

M. I go to prepare a place for you;

P. And if I go and prepare a place for you,

M. I will come again and receive you unto myself;

P. That where I am, there ye may be also.

M. I ascend unto my Father and your Father, and to my God and your God.

P. And I, if I be lifted up from the earth, will draw all men unto me.

M. Now is Christ risen from the dead, and become the first fruits of them that slept.

P. For since by man came death, by man came also the resurrection of the dead.

M. For as in Adam all die, even so in Christ shall all be made alive.

P. For we know that if our earthly house of this tabernacle were dissolved, we have a building of God,

M. A house not made with hands, eternal in the heavens.

P. Wherefore we faint not; knowing that he who raised up Jesus shall raise up us also with Jesus.

M. Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ,

P. Who hath begotten us again unto a lively hope,

M. By the resurrection of Jesus Christ from the dead;

P. Unto an inheritance incorruptible and undefiled, and that fadeth not away,

M. Reserved in heaven for you that are kept by the power of God.

P. Wherein we rejoice with joy unspeakable and full of glory.

XVIII.

SANCTIFY ye a fast; call a solemn assembly.
P. Gather the elders and all the inhabitants of the land into the house of the Lord.

M. Wash you: make you clean: put away the evil of your doings from before mine eyes.

P. Cease to do evil: learn to do well.

M. Seek judgment: relieve the oppressed.

P. Judge the fatherless: plead for the widow.

M. Behold, ye fast for strife and debate;

P. And to smite with the fist of wickedness.

M. Is it such a fast that I have chosen?

P. A day for a man to afflict his soul?

M. Is it to bow down his head as a bulrush?

P. Wilt thou call this a fast and an acceptable day to the Lord?

M. Is not this the fast that I have chosen, to loose the bonds of wickedness;

P. To undo the heavy burdens, and to let the oppressed go free?

M. Is it not to deal thy bread to the hungry,

P. And to bring the poor that are cast out to thy house?

M. When thou seest the naked that thou cover him;

P. And that thou hide not thyself from thine own flesh?

M. Hath the Lord so great delight in burnt offerings, as in obeying the voice of the Lord?

P. Behold, to obey is better than to sacrifice; and to love the Lord is more than all burnt offerings and sacrifices.

M. Moreover, when ye fast, be not as the hypocrites, of a sad countenance;

P. For they disfigure their faces that they may appear unto men to fast;

M. But thou, when thou fastest, anoint thy head and wash thy face;

P. That thou appear not unto men to fast,

M. But unto thy Father, who is in secret,

P. And thy Father, who seeth in secret, shall reward thee openly.

M. He hath showed thee, O man, what is good; and what doth the Lord require of thee,

P. But to do justly, to love mercy, and to walk humbly with thy God?

M. If thou draw out thy soul to the hungry, and satisfy the afflicted soul;

P. Then shall thy light break forth as the morning, and thy darkness be as noonday.

M. Thine health shall spring forth speedily; and thy righteousness shall go before thee;

P. And the glory of the Lord shall be round about thee.

XIX.

THE heavens declare the glory of God, and the firmament sheweth his handiwork.

P. Day unto day uttereth speech, and night unto night sheweth knowledge.

M. There is no speech nor language: their voice is not heard.

P. Their line is gone out through all the earth: their words to the end of the world.

M. In them hath he set a tabernacle for the sun

P. Which, as a bridegroom coming out of his chamber, rejoiceth as a strong man to run a race.

M. His going forth is from the end of the heaven, his circuit unto the ends of it:

P. There is nothing hid from the heat thereof

M. The law of the Lord is perfect, converting the soul.

P. The testimony of the Lord is sure, making wise the simple.

M. The statutes of the Lord are right, rejoicing the heart.

P. The commandment of the Lord is pure, enlightening the eyes.

M. The fear of the Lord is clean, enduring forever.

P. The judgments of the Lord are true and righteous altogether.

M. More to be desired are they than gold, yea, than much fine gold :

P. Sweeter also than honey in the honeycomb.

M. Moreover by them is thy servant warned, and in keeping of them there is great reward.

P. Who can understand his errors? Cleanse thou me from secret faults.

M. Keep back thy servant also from presumptuous sins ; let them not have dominion over me.

P. Then shall I be upright, and I shall be innocent from the great transgression.

M. & P. Let the words of my mouth, and the meditation of my heart, be acceptable in thy sight, O Lord, my strength and my redeemer.

XX.

PRAISE ye the Lord. Praise God in his sanctuary : praise him in the firmament of his power.

P. Praise him for his mighty acts ; praise him according to his excellent greatness.

M. Praise him with the sound of the trumpet : praise him with the psaltery and harp.

P. Praise him with the timbrel and dance : praise him with stringed instruments and organs.

M. Praise him upon the loud cymbals : praise him upon the high-sounding cymbals.

P. Let everything that hath breath praise the Lord. Praise ye the Lord.

XXI.

BLESSED are the undefiled in the way, who walk in the law of the Lord.

P. Blessed are they that keep his testimonies and they that seek him with the whole heart.

M. Hear, ye children, instruction, and attend to know understanding :

P. For the Lord giveth wisdom, and out of his mouth cometh understanding.

M. Keep thy heart with all diligence ;

P. For out of it are the issues of life.

M. Ponder the path at thy feet, and let all thy ways be established ;

P. For the ways of man are before the eyes of the Lord, and he pondereth all his goings.

M. Enter not into the path of the wicked, and go not in the way of evil men ;

P. For they eat the bread of wickedness, and drink the wine of violence.

M. But the path of the just is as the shining light,

P. That shineth more and more unto the perfect day.

M. Add to your faith virtue ; and to virtue knowledge ; and to knowledge temperance ; and to temperance patience ; and to patience godliness ;

P. For if ye do these things, ye shall never fail

- . Look not upon the wine when it is red, n it giveth its color in the cup, when it moveth
f aright ;

aw.

XXII.

O LORD, thou hast searched me, and knowest me.

P. Thou knowest my downsitting and mine uprising; thou understandest my thought afar off.

M. Thou compassest my path and my lying down, and art acquainted with all my ways.

P. For there is not a word in my tongue, but thou knowest it altogether.

M. Thou hast beset me behind and before, and laid thine hand upon me.

P. Such knowledge is too wonderful for me, it is high, I cannot attain unto it.

M. Whither shall I go from thy spirit? whither shall I flee from thy presence?

P. If I ascend up into heaven, thou art there; if I make my bed in the grave, behold thou art there.

M. If I take the wings of the morning, and dwell in the uttermost parts of the sea;

P. Even there shall thy hand lead me, and thy right hand shall hold me.

M. If I say, Surely the darkness shall cover me, even the night shall be light about me.

P. Yea, the darkness hideth not from thee, but the night shineth as the day.

M. How precious also are thy thoughts unto me.

me, O God ! how great is the sum of them !

P. If I should count them, they are more in number than the sand.

M. Search me, O God, and know my heart : try me, and know my thoughts ;

P. And see if there be any wicked way in me, and lead me in the way everlasting.

XXIII.

THE LORD is my shepherd ; I shall not want
P. He maketh me to lie down in green pastures :

M. He leadeth me beside the still waters : he restoreth my soul :

P. He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for his name's sake.

M. Yea, thou I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil ;

P. For thou art with me : thy rod and thy staff they comfort me.

M. Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies :

P. Thou anointest my head with oil ; my cup runneth over.

M. Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life ;

P. And I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever.

XXIV.

THE earth is the Lord's, and the ful thereof; the world, and they that d therein.

P. For he hath founded it upon the seas, established it upon the floods.

M. Who shall ascend into the hill of the L or who shall stand in his holy place?

P. He that hath clean hands, and a pure he

M. Who hath not lifted up his soul unto vai nor sworn deceitfully.

P. He shall receive the blessing from the L and righteousness from the God of his salvati

M. This is the generation of them that him,

P. That seek thy face, O God of Jacob.

M. Lift up your heads, O ye gates; and b lifted up, ye everlasting doors;

P. And the King of glory shall come in.

M. Who is this King of glory?

P. The Lord strong and mighty, the l mighty in battle.

M. Lift up your heads, O ye gates; even them up, ye everlasting doors;

P. And the King of glory shall come in.

M. Who is this King of glory?

P. The Lord of hosts, he is the King of g

XXV.

THE Lord is my light and my salvation ; whom shall I fear ?

P. The Lord is the strength of my life ; of whom shall I be afraid ?

M. Though a host should encamp against me, my heart shall not fear :

P. Though war should rise against me, in this will I be confident.

M. I will say of the Lord, He is my refuge and my fortress : my God ; in him will I trust.

P. When my father and my mother forsake me, then the Lord will take me up.

M. One thing have I desired of the Lord, that will I seek after ;

P. That I may dwell in the house of the Lord all the days of my life,

M. To behold the beauty of the Lord, and to inquire in his temple.

P. For in the time of trouble he shall hide me in his pavilion :

M. In the secret of his tabernacle shall he hide me ; he shall set me upon a rock.

P. Therefore will I offer in his tabernacle sacrifices of joy ;

M. & P. I will sing, yea, I will sing praises unto the Lord.

XXVI.

SEEING the multitude, Jesus went up into mountain, and his disciples came unto him.

P. And he opened his mouth and taught them, saying:

M. Blessed are the poor in spirit,

P. For theirs is the kingdom of heaven.

M. Blessed are they that mourn,

P. For they shall be comforted.

M. Blessed are the meek,

P. For they shall inherit the earth.

M. Blessed are they that do hunger and thirst after righteousness,

P. For they shall be filled.

M. Blessed are the merciful,

P. For they shall obtain mercy.

M. Blessed are the pure in heart,

P. For they shall see God.

M. Blessed are they that are persecuted for righteousness' sake,

P. For theirs is the kingdom of heaven.

M. Blessed are ye when men shall revile and persecute you,

P. And say all manner of evil against you falsely, for my sake.

XXVII.

I SAY unto you, love your enemies : bless them that curse you :

P. Do good to them that hate you : pray for them that despitefully use you and persecute you ;

M. That ye may be the children of your Father who is in heaven.

P. For he maketh his sun to rise on the evil and on the good.

M. He sendeth rain on the just and on the unjust.

P. For if ye love them that love you, what reward have ye? do not even the publicans the same?

M. And if ye do good to them that do good to you, what reward have ye?

P. For sinners also do even the same.

M. But love your enemies, and do good,

P. And your reward shall be great.

M. Ye shall be the children of the Highest,

P. For he is kind unto the unthankful and to the evil.

M. Be ye therefore merciful, as your Father also is merciful.

P. Be ye therefore perfect, even as your Father who is in heaven is perfect.

XXVIII.

BEHOLD, the Lord, the Lord of hosts do take away the stay and the staff,

P. The mighty man and the man of war,

M. The prudent man and the counsellor,

P. The captain of fifty and the honorable man

M. How are the mighty fallen in the midst battle !

P. How is the strong staff broken and the beautiful rod !

M. How are the mighty fallen and the weapons of war finished !

P. The beauty of Israel is slain upon the high places.

M. Come, behold the works of the Lord : what desolations he hath made in the earth.

P. He maketh wars to cease unto the ends
the earth :

M. He breaketh the bow and cutteth the spear in sunder ;

P. He burneth the chariot in the fire.

M. He maketh the wrath of man to praise him

P. And the remainder of wrath doth he restrain.

M. He redeemeth the soul of his servants ;

P. And none of them that trust in him shall be desolate.

M. Weep ye not for the dead, neither bemoan them.

P. I will ransom them from the power of the grave; I will redeem them from death, saith the Lord.

M. We see Jesus, who was made a little lower than the angels, for the suffering of death crowned with glory and honor.

P. That he, by the grace of God, should taste death for every man.

M. For it became him, by whom are all things, in bringing many sons to glory,

P. To make the captain of their salvation perfect through suffering.

M. What shall separate us from the love of Christ?

P. Shall tribulation, or distress, or persecution, or famine, or nakedness, or peril, or sword?

M. Nay, in all these things we are more than conquerors through him that loved us.

P. For I am persuaded that neither death nor life, nor principalities nor powers,

M. Nor things present nor things to come, nor height nor depth, nor any other creature,

P. Shall be able to separate us from the love of God, which is in Christ Jesus our Lord.

XXIX.

REST in the Lord, and wait patiently for him :
P. Fret not thyself because of him prospereth in his way, because of the man bringeth wicked devices to pass.

M. Cease from anger and forsake wrath :
not thyself in any wise to do evil.

P. For evil doers shall be cut off; but they that wait upon the Lord, they shall inherit earth.

M. Depart from evil, and do good; and dwell for evermore.

P. For the Lord loveth judgment, and saketh not his saints.

M. The steps of a good man are ordered by the Lord; and he delighteth in his way.

P. Though he fall, he shall not be utterly down; for the Lord upholdeth him with his hand.

M. He giveth power to the faint, and to them that wait upon the Lord shall increase strength.

P. Even the youths shall faint and be weary, and the young men shall utterly fall;

M. But they that wait upon the Lord shall renew their strength; they shall mount up like wings, as eagles;

P. They shall run and not be weary; they shall shall walk and not faint.

XXX.

TRUST in the Lord and do good ; so shalt thou dwell in the land, and verily thou shalt be fed.

P. Delight thyself also in the Lord ; and he shall give thee the desires of thine heart.

M. Commit thy way unto the Lord : trust also in him ; and he shall bring it to pass.

P. And he shall bring forth thy righteousness as the light, and thy judgment as the noonday.

M. Fret not thyself because of evil doers, neither be thou envious against the workers of iniquity ;

P. For they shall soon be cut down like the grass, and wither as the green herb.

M. I have seen the wicked in great power, and spreading himself like a green bay tree.

P. Yet he passed away, and lo, he was not : yea, I sought him, but he could not be found.

M. I have been young, and now am old ; yet have I not seen the righteous forsaken, nor his seed begging bread.

P. The Lord knoweth the days of the upright ; and their inheritance shall be for ever.

M. & P. Mark the perfect man, and behold the upright ; for the end of that man is peace.

XXXI.

LO, the winter is past, and summer is at hand.
P. The time of the singing of birds is come.

M. The flowers appear on the earth,

P. And the voice of the dove is heard in the land.

M. The wilderness and the solitary place shall be glad for them,

P. And the desert shall rejoice and blossom as the rose.

M. It shall blossom abundantly, and rejoice even with joy and singing.

P. For, as the earth bringeth forth her bud,

M. And as the garden causeth things that are sown in it to spring forth,

P. So the Lord will cause righteousness and praise to spring forth before all the nations.

M. Consider the lilies of the field, how they grow; they toil not, neither do they spin:

P. And yet I say unto you, that even Solomon in all his glory was not arrayed like one of these.

M. And there arose a reasoning among the disciples which of them should be greatest;

P. But when Jesus saw the reasoning he called them to him, and set him in the midst of them;

M. And when he had taken him in his arms, he said unto them:

P. Whosoever shall receive one of such children in my name receiveth me ;

M. And whosoever shall receive me, receiveth not me, but him that sent me ;

P. For he that is least among you all, the same shall be great.

M. Then were there brought unto him little children, that he should put his hands on them and pray :

P. And his disciples rebuked those that brought them ;

M. But Jesus said, Suffer little children to come unto me, and forbid them not :

P. For of such is the kingdom of heaven.

M. Verily I say unto you, Whosoever shall not receive the kingdom of God as a little child, he shall not enter therein.

P. And he took them up in his arms, put his hands upon them, and blessed them.

M. Take heed that ye despise not one of these little ones,

P. For I say unto you, that in heaven their angels do always behold the face of my Father who is in heaven.

M. Children are a heritage of the Lord,

P. And they shall be mine, saith the Lord of hosts, in that day when I make up my jewels.

XXXII.

I WILL bless the Lord at all times : his praise shall continually be in my mouth.

P. My soul shall make her boast in the Lord : the humble shall hear thereof and be glad.

M. O magnify the Lord with me, and let us exalt his name together.

P. I sought the Lord and he heard me ; he delivered me from all my fears.

M. This poor man cried, and the Lord heard him,

P. And saved him out of all his troubles.

M. Come, ye children, hearken unto me : I will teach you the fear of the Lord.

P. The angel of the Lord encampeth round about them that fear him, and delivereth them.

M. O fear the Lord, all ye his saints ;

P. For there is no want to them that fear him.

M. O love the Lord, all ye his saints,

P. For the Lord loveth judgment, and he will forsake them that forsake him.

M. O taste and see that the Lord is good :

P. Blessed is the man that trusteth in him.

M. Seek the Lord, and his strength : seek his face evermore ;

P. For they that seek the Lord shall not want any good thing.

XXXIII.

KEEP thy tongue from evil, and thy lips from speaking guile.

P. Depart from evil and do good : seek peace and pursue it.

M. Cease from anger and forsake wrath : fret not thyself in any wise to do evil ;

P. For the face of the Lord is against them that do evil.

M. The eyes of the Lord are upon the righteous ;

P. His ears are open unto their cry.

M. The hope of the righteous shall be gladness ;

P. But the expectation of the wicked shall perish.

M. The righteous cry, and the Lord heareth ;

P. He delivereth them out of all their troubles.

M. The Lord is nigh unto them that are of a broken heart ;

P. He saveth such as be of a contrite spirit.

M. Many are the afflictions of the righteous,

P. But the Lord delivereth him out of them all.

M. The Lord redeemeth the soul of his servants :

P. None of them that trust in him shall be desolate.

XXXIV.

I WILL sing of thy mercies, O Lord, with my mouth will I make known fulness to all generations.

P. For I have said, Mercy shall be b ever; thy faithfulness shalt thou estab
very heavens.

M. And the heavens shall praise thy O Lord; thy faithfulness also in the coi of the saints.

P. For who in the heaven can be unto the Lord? who among the sons of t can be likened unto the Lord?

M. The heavens are thine, the ear thine.

P. As for the world and the fulnes thou hast founded them.

M. God is greatly to be feared in the
of the saints.

P. And to be had in reverence of all are about him.

M. O Lord God of hosts, who is a st like unto thee? or to thy faithfulness ro thee?

P. Justice and judgment are the ha thy throne: mercy and truth shall go l face.

M. Blessed are the people that know the joyful sound: they shall walk, O Lord, in the light of thy countenance.

P. In thy name shall they rejoice all the day; and in thy righteousness shall they be exalted.

XXXV.

O LORD, our Lord, how excellent is thy name in all the earth! who hast set thy glory above the heavens.

P. When I consider thy heavens, the work of thy fingers, the moon and the stars, which thou hast ordained;

M. What is man, that thou art mindful of him? and the son of man, that thou visitest him?

P. For thou hast made him a little lower than the angels, and hast crowned him with glory and honor.

M. Thou madest him to have dominion over the works of thy hands; thou hast put all things under his feet:

P. All sheep and oxen, yea, and the beasts of the field;

M. The fowl of the air, and the fish of the sea, and whatsoever passeth through the paths of the seas.

P. O Lord, our Lord, how excellent is thy name in all the earth!

XXXVI.

HO, every one that thirsteth, come ye to waters;

P. And ye that have no money, come ye,
and eat, without money and without price.

M. Wherefore do ye spend money for which is not bread,

P. And your labor for that which satisfieth

M. Hearken diligently unto me, and eat ye which is good,

P. And let your soul delight itself in fatness

M. Incline your ear, and come unto me;

P. Hear, and your soul shall live.

M. Seek ye the Lord while he may be found

P. Call ye upon him while he is near.

M. Let the wicked forsake his way, and unrighteous man his thoughts;

P. And let him return unto the Lord, and will have mercy upon him,

M. And to our God, for he will abundantly pardon.

P. For my thoughts are not your thoughts

M. Neither are your ways my ways, saith the Lord.

P. For as the heavens are higher than
earth,

M. So are my ways higher than your ways, and my thoughts than your thoughts.

P. For as the rain cometh down and the snow from heaven,

M. And returneth not thither, but watereth the earth, and maketh it bring forth and bud,

P. That it may give seed to the sower and bread to the eater ;

M. So shall my word be that goeth forth out of my mouth :

P. It shall not return unto me void,

M. But it shall accomplish that which I please, and it shall prosper in the thing whereto I send it.

P. For ye shall go out with joy, and be led forth with peace.

M. The mountains and the hills shall break forth before you into singing,

P. And all the trees of the field shall clap their hands.

M. Instead of the thorn shall come up the fir tree,

P. And instead of the brier shall come up the myrtle tree ;

M. And it shall be to the Lord for a name,

P. For an everlasting sign that shall not be cut off.

XXXVII.

RIGHTEOUS art thou, O Lord, and upright are thy judgments.

P. I will praise thee with uprightness of heart when I shall have learned thy righteous judgments.

M. Rejoice in the Lord, ye righteous; and for joy, ye upright.

P. For the righteous Lord loveth righteousness: his countenance doth behold the upright.

M. He loveth righteousness and judgment: the earth is full of the goodness of the Lord.

P. So that a man shall say, Verily there is reward for the righteous; verily he is a God that judgeth in the earth.

M. Let the righteous be glad: let them rejoice before God: yea, let them exceedingly rejoice.

P. For he shall judge the world in righteousness, he shall minister judgment to the people with uprightness.

M. The fruit of the righteous is a tree of life, and he that winneth souls is wise.

P. Behold, the righteous shall be recompensed in the earth; much more the wicked and the sinner.

M. Light is sown for the righteous, and peace for the upright in heart.

P. In the way of righteousness is life, the pathway thereof there is no death.

XXXVIII.

BE GLAD in the Lord, ye righteous, and rejoice in him, all ye that are upright in heart.

P. The righteous shall be glad in the Lord, and all the upright in heart shall glory.

M. Evil shall slay the wicked, and they that hate the righteous shall be desolate.

P. But the righteous shall give thanks unto thy name, O Lord ; the upright shall dwell in thy presence.

M. Say ye to the righteous that it shall be well with them ;

P. For they shall eat the fruit of their doings.

M. Woe unto the wicked, it shall be ill with him ;

P. For the reward of his hands shall be given him.

M. He that walketh uprightly, walketh surely.

P. Unto the upright there ariseth light in the darkness.

M. The path of the righteous is as the shining light,

P. That shineth more and more unto the perfect day.

M. The memory of the just is blessed :

P. The righteous shall be held in everlasting remembrance.

XXXIX.

GIVE unto the Lord, O ye kindreds people, give unto the Lord glor
strength.

P. Declare his glory among the nation wonders among all people.

M. Give thanks unto the Lord : call up name :

P. Remember the marvelous works t hath done.

M. Be mindful always of the covenant t hath made,

P. The word which he commanded to a sand generations.

M. Remember the days of old, consid years of many generations.

P. Ask thy fathers, and they will show thy elders, and they will tell thee.

M. We have heard with our ears, O Go fathers have told us what work thou di those days, in times of old.

P. Our fathers trusted in thee ; they tru thee, and thou didst deliver them.

M. When they were but few men in nu yea, very few, and strangers in the land :

P. When they went from one nati
another, and from one kingdom to another p

4. He suffered no nation to do them wrong :
; he reprov'd kings for their sakes.

5. Happy is that people whose God is the d ; for the Lord taketh pleasure in his people.

6. The Lord taketh pleasure in them that fear
; in them that hope in his mercy.

7. Surely his salvation is nigh them that fear
; that glory may dwell in our land.

8. The lines have fallen unto us in pleasant es.

9. Yea, we have a goodly heritage.

10. Mercy and truth are met together : rightness and peace have kissed each other.

11. Truth shall spring out of the earth, and teousness shall look down from heaven.

12. Righteousness exalteth a nation ; but sin is proach to any people.

13. For the righteous God loveth righteous-
; and his portion is his people.

14. The Lord will give strength unto his ple ; the Lord will bless his people with e.

15. Yea, the Lord will give that which is good ;
our land shall yield her increase.

16. Blessed is the nation whose God is the l ;

17. And the people whom he hath chosen for nheritance.

XL.

AND it shall come to pass in the last days, the mountain of the Lord's house shall established in the top of the mountains,

P. And shall be exalted above the hills;
all nations shall flow unto it.

M. And many people shall go and say, C ye, and let us go up to the mountain of Lord;

P. To the house of the God of Jacob.

M. He will teach us of his ways, and we walk in his paths;

P. For out of Zion shall go forth the law,
the word of the Lord from Jerusalem.

M. And he shall judge among the nations, shall rebuke many people;

P. And they shall beat their swords ploughshares, and their spears into pruning hooks.

M. Nation shall not lift up sword aga nation, neither shall they learn war any more.

P. But they shall sit every man under his and under his fig tree; and none shall make t afraid.

M. O Zion, that bringest good tidings, thee up into the high mountain:

P. O Jerusalem, that bringest good tidings, lift up thy voice with strength ; lift it up : be not raid.

M. Say to the cities of Judah, Behold, your God, the Lord God, will come with a strong hand, and his arm shall rule for him.

P. Behold his reward is with him, and his work before him.

M. He shall feed his flock like a shepherd ;

P. He shall gather the lambs with his arm, and carry them in his bosom.

M. Sing, O heavens ; and be joyful, O earth ;
and break forth into singing, O mountains ;

P. For the Lord hath comforted his people,
and will have mercy upon his afflicted.

M. In this mountain shall the Lord of hosts make a feast unto all people ;

P. And he will destroy in this mountain the ce of the covering cast over all people, and the veil that is spread over all nations.

M. He will swallow up death in victory ;

P. And the Lord God will wipe away tears from off all faces ;

M. And the rebuke of his people will he take away from off all the earth.

P. It shall be said in that day, Lo, this is our God ; we have waited for him ; we will be glad and rejoice in his salvation.

XLI.

SING unto the Lord with thanksgiving praise unto him.

P. Sing praise upon the harp unto our

M. Great is our Lord, and of great power understanding is infinite.

P. He telleth the number of the stars and calleth them all by their names.

M. He looketh on the earth, and it trembleth

P. He toucheth the hills, and they smoke

M. He covereth the heaven with clouds and prepareth rain for the earth.

P. He maketh grass to grow upon the mountains:
he maketh the grass to grow upon the hills:

M. He sendeth forth his commandments and his word runneth very swiftly.

P. He giveth to the beast his food, and to the young ravens which cry.

M. He giveth snow like wool: he sendeth the hoar frost like ashes.

P. He casteth forth his ice like morsels:
his word can stand before his cold?

M. He sendeth out his word, and melteth the snow.

P. He causeth his wind to blow, and the waves flow.

M. & P. The Lord rejoiceth in all his works: his glory shall endure forever.

XLII.

O SING unto the Lord a new song; for he hath done marvelous things:

P. His right hand, and his holy arm, hath gotten him the victory.

M. The Lord hath made known his salvation:

P. His righteousness hath he openly shewed in the sight of the nations.

M. He hath remembered his mercy and his truth toward the house of Israel.

P. All the ends of the earth have seen the salvation of our God.

M. Make a joyful noise unto the Lord, all the earth:

P. Make a loud noise, and rejoice, and sing praise.

M. Sing unto the Lord with the harp; with the harp, and the voice of a psalm.

P. With trumpets and sound of cornet make a joyful noise before the Lord, the King.

M. Let the sea roar, and the fulness thereof;
the world, and they that dwell therein.

P. Let the floods clap their hands: let the hills be joyful together before the Lord;

M. For he cometh, for he cometh to judge the
earth:

P. With righteousness shall he judge the world, and the people with equity.

XLIII.

HAVE mercy upon me, O God, according to thy loving kindness :

P. According to the multitude of thy mercies, blot out my transgressions.

M. Wash me thoroughly from mine iniquity and cleanse me from my sin ;

P. For I acknowledge my transgressions : my sin is ever before me.

M. Against thee, thee only, have I sinned : done evil in thy sight.

P. Behold, thou desirest truth in the inward parts ;

M. And in the hidden part thou shalt know wisdom.

P. Hide thy face from my sins ; and blot out all mine iniquities.

M. Make me to hear joy and gladness,

P. That the bones which thou hast broken may rejoice.

M. Deliver me from bloodguiltiness, O thou God of my salvation ;

P. And my tongue shall sing aloud of thy righteousness.

M. Purge me with hyssop, and I shall be clean : wash me, and I shall be whiter than snow.

P. For thou desirest not sacrifice ; else I give it : thou delightest not in burnt offerings.

M. The sacrifices of God are a broken spirit ;
a broken and a contrite heart, O God, thou wilt not despise.

P. Create in me a clean heart, O God ; and renew a right spirit within me.

M. Cast me not away from thy presence ; and take not thy holy spirit from me.

P. Uphold me with thy free spirit, and restore unto me the joy of thy salvation.

XLIV.

HEAR my prayer, O Lord, give ear to my supplications :

P. In thy faithfulness, answer me.

M. Enter not into judgment with thy servant ;

P. For in thy sight shall no man be justified.

M. Make haste to help me, O Lord, my salvation ;

P. For iniquities have taken hold upon me.

M. They are more than the hairs of mine head ;

P. Therefore my heart faileth me.

M. Quicken me, O Lord, for thy name's sake :

P. Lead me into the land of uprightness.

M. Withhold not thou thy tender mercies from me, O Lord.

P. Let thy loving kindness and thy truth continually preserve me.

XLV.

PRAISE waiteth for thee, O God, in Zion : and unto thee shall the vow be performed.

P. O thou that hearest prayer, unto thee shall all flesh come.

M. All nations whom thou hast made shall come and worship before thee, O Lord ;

P. They shall sing unto thee : they shall unto thy name.

M. Blessed is the man whom thou choosest, causest to approach unto thee, that he may dwell in thy courts.

P. We shall be satisfied with the goodness thy house, even of thy holy temple.

M. By terrible things in righteousness thou answer us, O God of our salvation ;

P. Who art the confidence of all the ends of the earth, and of them that are afar off upon
the sea :

M. Who by thy strength settest fast the mountains ;
being girded with power :

P. Who stillest the noise of the seas, the noise of their waves, and the tumult of people.

M. They also that dwell in the uttermost parts of the earth are afraid at thy tokens.

P. Thou hidest thy face, they are troubled.

M. Thou sendest forth thy spirit, they are created :

P. Thou takest away their breath, they die, and return to their dust.

M. Thou openest thine hand, they are filled with good :

P. That which thou givest them they gather.

M. Thou makest the outgoings of the morning and evening to rejoice.

P. Thou renewest the face of the earth : thou visitest the earth, and waterest it :

M. Thou greatly enrichest it with the river of God, which is full of water :

P. Thou providest the corn, when thou hast so prepared the earth.

M. Thou waterest the ridges thereof abundantly : thou settlest the furrows thereof :

P. Thou makest it soft with showers : thou blessest the springing thereof.

M. Thou crownest the year with thy goodness ; and thy paths drop fruitfulness.

P. They drop upon the pastures of the wilderness ; and the little hills rejoice on every side.

M. The pastures are clothed with flocks : the valleys also are covered over with corn ;

P. They shout for joy, they also sing.

XLVI.

BLESS the Lord, O my soul. O Lord God, thou art very great :

P. Thou art clothed with honor and majesty :

M. Thou coverest thyself with light as garment :

P. Thou stretchest out the heavens like a curtain :

M. Thou layest the beams of thy chariot in the waters :

P. Thou makest the clouds thy chariot and walkest upon the wings of the wind :

M. Thou makest the winds thy messengers :

P. Thou makest the flaming fires thy servants :

M. Thou hast laid the foundations of the earth that it should not be removed for ever.

P. Thou coveredst it with the deep as garment :

M. The waters stood above the mountains
thy rebuke they fled :

P. At the voice of thy thunder they flew away.

M. They go up by the mountains : and they go down by the valleys ;

P. Unto the place which thou hast four times compassed them.

M. Thou hast set a bound that they may not pass over ;

P. That they turn not again to cover the earth.

M. Thou waterest the hills from thy chambers :

P. The earth is satisfied with the fruit of thy works.

M. Thou sendest the springs into the valleys, which run among the hills :

P. They give drink to every beast of the field :

M. By them the fowls of the heaven have their habitation,

P. Where they make their nests, and sing among the branches.

M. Thou causest the grass to grow for the cattle, and herb for the service of man.

P. Thou appointest the moon for seasons : the sun knoweth his going down.

M. Thou makest darkness, and it is night ;

P. Wherein all the beasts of the forest do creep forth.

M. The sun ariseth, they gather themselves together, and lay them down in their dens.

P. Man goeth forth unto his work, and to his labor until the evening.

M. These wait all upon thee ; that thou mayest give them their meat in due season.

M. & P. O Lord, how manifold are thy works !
In wisdom hast thou made them all.

XLVII.

O COME, let us sing unto the Lord : I make a joyful noise to the rock of salvation ;

P. For the Lord is great, and greatly praised.

M. Let us come before his presence thanksgiving, and make a joyful noise unto with psalms ;

P. For the Lord is a great God, and a King above all gods.

M. In his hand are the deep places of earth : the strength of the hills is his also.

P. The sea is his, and he made it ; and hands formed the dry land.

M. O come, let us worship and bow down us kneel before the Lord our maker ;

P. For he is our God ; and we are the pe of his pasture, and the sheep of his hand.

M. O sing unto the Lord a new song :
unto the Lord, all the earth.

P. Sing unto the Lord, bless his name :
forth his salvation from day to day.

M. Declare his glory among the heathen wonders among all people.

P. For all the gods of the nations are id but the Lord made the heavens.

M. The heavens declare his righteousness, and all the people see his glory.

P. Honor and majesty are before him : strength and beauty are in his sanctuary.

M. Give unto the Lord, O ye kindreds of the people, give unto the Lord glory and strength.

P. Give unto the Lord the glory due unto his name.

M. O worship the Lord in the beauty of holiness :

P. Bring an offering, and come into his courts.

M. Say among the heathen that the Lord reigneth ;

P. The world also shall be established that it shall not be moved.

M. Let the heavens rejoice, and let the earth be glad :

P. Let the field be joyful, and all that is therein.

M. Let the sea roar, and the fulness thereof :

P. Let the floods clap their hands : let the hills be joyful together.

M. Then shall all the trees of the wood rejoice before the Lord ;

P. For he cometh, for he cometh to judge the earth.

M. & P. He shall judge the world with righteousness, and the people with his truth.

XLVIII.

ASK, and it shall be given you ;

P. For every one that asketh receiveth.

M. Seek, and ye shall find ;

P. For he that seeketh findeth :

M. Knock, and it shall be opened unto you ;

P. For to him that knocketh it shall be opened.

M. What man is there of you, who, if his son ask bread, will give him a stone ?

P. Or if he ask a fish, will give him a serpent ?

M. If ye then know how to give good gifts unto your children,

P. How much more shall your Father who is in heaven give good things to them that ask him !

M. Wherefore all things whatsoever ye would that men should do to you, do ye even so to them

P. For this is the law and the prophets.

M. Lay not up for yourselves treasures upon earth, where moth and rust doth corrupt, and where thieves break through and steal ;

P. But lay up for yourselves treasures in heaven, where neither moth nor rust doth corrupt and where thieves do not break through nor steal

M. Sell that ye have and give alms : make for yourselves purses which wax not old, a treasure in the heavens that fadeth not ;

P. For where your treasure is there will your heart be also.

XLIX.

BE NOT anxious for your life, what ye shall eat; nor yet for your body, what ye shall put on;

P. For the life is more than meat, and the body than raiment.

M. Behold the fowls of the air: they sow not, neither do they reap, nor gather into barns;

P. Yet your heavenly Father feedeth them. Are ye not much better than they?

M. Which of you by taking thought can add one cubit to his stature?

P. If ye then be not able to do that which is least, why take ye thought for the rest?

M. Consider the lilies how they grow: they toil not, neither do they spin;

P. Yet Solomon in all his glory was not arrayed like one of these.

M. If God so clothe the grass of the field, will he not much more clothe you?

P. Be not therefore anxious, saying, What shall we eat? or What shall we drink? or Where-withal shall we be clothed?

M. For your heavenly Father knoweth that ye have need of all these things;

M. & P. But seek ye first the kingdom of God and his righteousness; and all these things shall be added unto you.

L.

AS the hart panteth after the water brooks, so panteth my soul after thee, O God.

P. My soul thirsteth for God, for the living God : when shall I come and appear before God ?

M. My tears have been my meat, day and night, while they continually say unto me, Where is thy God ?

P. These things I remember, and I pour out my soul in me : how I went with the multitude ;

M. I went with them to the house of God, with the voice of joy and praise, with a multitude that kept holyday.

P. O my God, my soul is cast down within me : therefore will I remember thee.

M. I will say unto God my Rock, Why hast thou forgotten me ? Why go I mourning because of the oppression of the enemy ?

P. For thou art the God of my strength : Why dost thou cast me off ?

M. Deep calleth unto deep at the noise of thy waterspouts :

P. All thy waves and thy billows are gone over me.

M. Yet the Lord will command his loving kindness in the daytime,

P. And in the night his song shall be with me, and my prayer unto the God of my life.

M. I will both lay me down in peace, and sleep ;

P. For thou, Lord, alone makest me dwell in safety.

M. My voice shalt thou hear in the morning,
Lord ; in the morning will I direct my prayer unto thee ;

P. For when I awake, I shall be still with thee.

M. Lead me, O Lord, in thy righteousness :
make thy way straight before my face.

P. Then will I come into thy house in the multitude of thy mercy ; and in thy fear will I worship ward thy holy temple.

M. O send out thy light and thy truth : let them lead me ;

P. Let them bring me unto thy holy hill, and thy tabernacles.

M. Then will I go unto the altar of God, unto God my exceeding joy :

P. Yea, upon the harp will I praise thee, O
God, my God.

M. Why art thou cast down, O my soul ? and why art thou disquieted within me ? Hope thou in God ;

P. For I shall yet praise him who is the health of my countenance, and my God.

LI.

I WILL extol thee, my God, O King; and will bless thy name forever and ever.

P. Every day will I bless thee; and I will praise thy name forever and ever.

M. Great art thou, O Lord, and greatly to be praised; and thy greatness is unsearchable.

P. One generation shall praise thy works to another, and shall declare thy mighty acts.

M. I will speak of the glorious honor of thy majesty, and of thy wondrous works.

P. And men shall speak of the might of thy terrible acts; and I will declare thy greatness.

M. They shall abundantly utter the memory of thy great goodness, and shall sing of thy righteousness.

P. All thy works shall praise thee, O Lord, and thy saints shall bless thee.

M. They shall speak of the glory of thy kingdom, and talk of thy power;

P. To make known to the sons of men thy mighty acts, and the glorious majesty of thy kingdom.

M. Thy kingdom is an everlasting kingdom, and thy dominion endureth throughout all generations.

P. Thou openest thy hand, and satisfiest the desire of every living thing.

M. The eyes of all wait upon thee ; and thou givest them their meat in due season.

P. The Lord is righteous in all his ways, and holy in all his works.

M. The Lord is gracious, and full of compassion ; slow to anger, and of great mercy.

P. The Lord is good to all, and his tender mercies are over all his works.

M. The Lord upholdeth all that fall, and raiseth up all those that be bowed down.

P. The Lord is nigh unto all them that call upon him, unto all that call upon him in truth.

M. He will fulfil the desire of them that fear him : he also will hear their cry, and will save them.

P. The Lord preserveth all them that love him : he preserveth the souls of all his saints.

M. & P. My mouth shall speak the praise of the Lord ; and let all flesh bless his holy name forever and ever.

LII.

BLESSED are the dead that die in the Lord, saith the spirit.

P. Yea, they rest from their labors, and works do follow them.

M. Precious in the sight of the Lord is death of his saints.

P. The Lord forsaketh not his saints : are preserved forever.

M. The memory of the just is blessed.

P. The righteous shall be in everlasting remembrance.

M. The eternal God is their refuge ;

P. And underneath are the everlasting arms.

M. Though he cause grief, yet will he show compassion, according to the multitude of mercies ;

P. For he doth not afflict willingly nor grieve the children of men.

M. Weeping may endure for the night, but joy cometh in the morning.

P. Our light affliction, which is but for a moment, worketh for us a far more exceeding and eternal weight of glory ;

M. While we look not at the things which are seen, but at the things which are not seen ;

P. For the things which are seen are temporal ;
but the things which are not seen are eternal.

M. I reckon that the sufferings of this present time are not worthy to be compared with the glory which shall be revealed in us.

P. Eye hath not seen, nor ear heard, neither have entered into the heart of man the things which God hath prepared for them that love him ;

M. For we know in part and we prophesy in part ;

P. But when that which is perfect is come,
then that which is in part shall be done away.

M. I would not have you to be ignorant concerning those who are asleep,

P. That ye sorrow not as others who have no hope.

M. For if we believe that Jesus died and rose again ;

P. Even so those also who sleep in Jesus will God bring with him.

M. And God shall wipe away all tears from their eyes, and there shall be no more death,

P. Neither sorrow, nor crying, neither shall there be any more pain.

M. And there shall be no night, and they need no candle, neither light of the sun ;

P. For the Lord God giveth them light ; and they shall reign forever and ever.

LIII.

TRULY God is good to Israel ; he is good even to such as are of a clean heart.

P. He withholdeth no good thing from them that walk uprightly.

M. But as for me, my feet were almost gone my steps had well nigh slipped ;

P. For I was envious at the foolish, when I saw the prosperity of the wicked.

M. They are not in trouble as other men neither are they plagued like other men.

P. Therefore pride compasseth them about as a chain : violence covereth them as a garment :

M. Their eyes stand out with fatness : they have more than heart could wish.

P. They set their mouth against the heavens their tongue walketh through the earth.

M. They are corrupt : they speak wickedly and loftily.

P. They say, How doth God know ? and, I there knowledge in the Most High ?

M. Behold, these are ungodly who prosper in the world ;

P. They increase in riches, their strength firm.

M. Verily I have cleansed my heart in vain and washed my hands in innocency.

P. For all the day long have I been plagued, and chastened every morning:

M. When I thought to know this, it was too painful for me;

P. Until I went into the sanctuary of God,
then understood I their end.

M. How they are brought into desolation, as in a moment:

P. They are utterly consumed with terrors.

M. Thus my heart was grieved, O Lord, so foolish was I, and ignorant before thee.

P. Nevertheless I am continually with thee;
thou holdest me by my right hand.

M. I have put my trust in thee, O Lord, that I may declare all thy works.

P. My flesh and my heart faileth;

M. But thou, O Lord, art the strength of my heart, and my portion forever.

P. Thou shalt guide me with thy counsel, and afterward receive me to glory.

M. Whom have I in heaven but thee? and there is none upon earth that I desire besides thee.

P. Thou wilt show me the path of life: in thy presence is fulness of joy:

M. At thy right hand there are pleasures for ever more.

P. I shall be satisfied, when I awake in thy likeness.

LIV.

HE that dwelleth in the secret place of th
Most High, shall abide under the shadow of the Almighty.

P. I will say of the Lord, He is my refuge and my fortress; my God, in him will I trust.

M. Because thou hast made the Lord, who my refuge, even the Most High, thy habitation;

P. There shall no evil befall thee, neither shall any plague come nigh thy dwelling.

M. Thou shalt not be afraid for the terror of night, nor for the arrow that flieth by day;

P. Nor for the pestilence that walketh in darkness, nor for the destruction that wasteth noonday.

M. A thousand shall fall at thy side, and ten thousand at thy right hand, but it shall not come nigh thee;

P. For he shall give his angels charge over thee, to keep thee in all thy ways.

M. They shall bear thee up in their hands, lest thou dash thy foot against a stone.

P. He shall cover thee with his feathers, and under his wings shalt thou trust.

M. Because thou hast set thy love upon him, therefore will he deliver thee.

P. With long life will he satisfy thee, and show thee his salvation.

LV.

I WILL praise thee, O Lord, with my whole heart: I will show forth thy marvelous works.

P. Many, O Lord my God, are thy wonderful works; they are more than can be numbered.

M. Who can utter the mighty acts of the Lord? Who can show forth all his praise?

P. All thy works shall praise thee, O Lord; and thy saints shall bless thee.

M. God hath spoken once, twice have I heard this, that power belongeth unto God.

P. Also unto thee, O Lord, belongeth mercy; for thou renderest to every man according to his work.

M. The Lord looketh from heaven: he beholdeth all the sons of men.

P. Let all the earth fear the Lord: let all the inhabitants of the world stand in awe of him.

M. By the word of the Lord were the heavens made; and all the host of them by the breath of his mouth.

P. For he spake, and it was done: he commanded, and it stood fast.

M. I will praise thee, O Lord, among the people; and I will sing praises unto thee among the nations.

P. For thy mercy is great above the heavens; and thy faithfulness reacheth unto the clouds.

LVI.

BEHOLD, all souls are mine, saith the Lord.
P. In the hand of our God is the soul of every living thing.

M. God is the God of the spirits of all flesh.

P. He is the Father of spirits, and we are his offspring.

M. One is our Father, who is in heaven, and we are all brethren.

P. Have we not all one Father? Hath not one God created us?

M. The God that made the world and all things therein;

P. Of him the whole family in heaven and earth is named;

M. He giveth to all life and breath and all things;

P. And hath made of one blood all nations of men, to dwell on all the face of the earth.

M. That they should seek the Lord, if haply they might feel after him and find him; though he be not far from each one of us;

P. For in him we live and move and have our being.

M. For none of us liveth to himself, and no man dieth to himself.

P. Whether we live, we live unto the Lord, and whether we die, we die unto the Lord;

M. Whether we live, therefore, or die, we are the Lord's.

P. For to this end Christ both died, and rose, and revived; that he might be Lord both of the dead and of the living.

M. He died for all; that they who live should not henceforth live unto themselves;

P. But unto him who died for them, and rose again.

M. God hath purposed in himself that, in the dispensation of the fulness of times, he might gather together in one all things in Christ,

P. Both which are in heaven and which are on earth.

M. God also hath highly exalted him; and given him a name which is above every name;

P. That at the name of Jesus every knee should bend, of things in heaven, and things on earth, and things under the earth;

M. And that every tongue should confess that Jesus Christ is Lord, to the glory of God the Father.

P. For it was the good pleasure of the Father that in him should all fulness dwell,

M. And through him to reconcile all things unto himself,

P. Whether things upon the earth, or things in the heavens.

LVII.

THY way, O Lord, is in the sea ; thy path is the great waters.

P. Thou rulest the raging of the sea : th stillest the waves thereof.

M. The floods have lifted up, O Lord, t floods have lifted up their voice : the floods ha lifted up their waves.

P. For thou commandest and raisest the storm wind, which lifted up the waves thereof.

M. They that go down to the sea in ships, th do business in great waters,

P. These see the works of the Lord, and wonders in the deep.

M. They mount up to the heaven, they go do again to the depths :

P. Their soul is melted because of trouble.

M. Then they cry unto thee, O Lord, in th trouble,

P. And thou bringest them out of their distre

M. Thou makest the storm a calm, so that t waves thereof are still.

P. Then they are glad because they are quie so bringest thou them to their desired haven.

M. & P. The Lord on high is mightier than t noise of many waters, yea, than the mighty wav
the sea.

LVIII.

GOD is our refuge and strength, a very present help in trouble.

P. Therefore will we not fear, though the earth be removed :

M. Though the mountains be carried into the midst of the sea :

P. Though the waters thereof roar and be troubled :

M. Though the mountains shake with the swelling thereof.

P. The Lord of hosts is with us : the God of Jacob is our refuge.

M. Come, behold the works of the Lord :

P. He maketh wars to cease unto the end of the earth ;

M. He breaketh the bow, and cutteth the spear in sunder ;

P. He burneth the chariot in the fire.

M. The nations raged, the kingdoms were moved ;

P. He uttered his voice, the earth melted.

M. Be still, and know that I am God :

P. I will be exalted among the nations ; I will be exalted in the earth.

M. & P. The Lord of hosts is with us : the God of Jacob is our refuge.

LIX.

JESUS said unto them, Labor not for that meat which perisheth, but for that meat which endureth unto everlasting life ;

P. Which the son of man shall give unto you ; for him hath God the Father sealed.

M. I am the bread of life : he that cometh to me shall never hunger, and he that believeth on me shall never thirst.

P. Lord, evermore give us this bread.

M. My Father giveth you the true bread from heaven ;

P. For the bread of God is that which cometh down from heaven, and giveth life unto the world

M. All that the Father giveth me shall come to me, and him that cometh to me I will in no wise cast out ;

P. For I came down from heaven not to do mine own will, but the will of him that sent me.

M. And this is the Father's will who hath sent me, that of all which he hath given me I should lose nothing,

P. But should raise it up again at the last day

M. I am the living bread which came down from heaven ; he that believeth on me hath eternal life. I am that bread of life.

P. This is the bread which cometh down from heaven, that a man may eat thereof and not die.

LX.

I AM the light of the world ; he that followeth me shall not walk in darkness, but shall have the light of life.

P. O house of Jacob, come, let us walk in the light of the Lord.

M. I am come, a light into the world, that whosoever believeth on me may not abide in darkness.

P. That is the true light which lighteth every man that cometh into the world.

M. Walk while ye have the light, lest darkness come upon you ;

P. For he that walketh in darkness knoweth not whither he goeth.

M. While ye have the light, believe in the light,

P. That ye may be the children of light.

M. Ye are the light of the world :

P. A city that is set on a hill cannot be hid ;

M. Neither do men light a candle and put it under a bushel, but on a candlestick,

P. And it giveth light to all that are in the house.

M. Let your light so shine before men that they may see your good works,

P. And glorify your Father which is in heaven.

LXI.

O COME, let us offer unto God thanksgiving and pay our vows unto the Most High.

P. Let us enter into his gates with thanksgiving, and into his courts with praise.

M. Let us come before his presence with thanksgiving,

P. And make a joyful noise unto him with psalms.

M. Let us serve the Lord with gladness, and come before his presence with singing.

P. Let us offer unto him the sacrifices of thanksgiving, and declare his works with rejoicing.

M. Let us be thankful unto him and bless his name ;

P. For the Lord is good, his mercy is everlasting.

M. Make a joyful noise unto the Lord, all lands,

P. Sing forth the honor of his name : make praise glorious.

M. Sing praises to God, sing praises : sing praises unto our King ;

P. For God is the King of all the earth : sing praises with understanding.

M. Know ye that the Lord he is God ; it is that hath made us, and not we ourselves.

P. He is our God, the God of our salvation :
we are his people, and the sheep of his pasture.

M. Remember the marvelous works that he hath done,

P. The works of his hands, and the judgments of his mouth.

M. Sing unto him, sing psalms unto him ; talk ye of all his wondrous works.

P. For he hath satisfied the longing soul, and filled the hungry soul with goodness.

M. O bless our God, ye people, and make the voice of his praise to be heard ;

P. For the earth hath yielded her increase ;
and God, even our own God, hath blessed us.

M. He hath visited the earth and watered it.

P. He hath greatly enriched it with the river of God, which is full of water.

M. The pastures have been clothed with flocks.

P. The valleys have been covered with corn ;
and the little hills have rejoiced on every side.

M. He hath made the outgoings of the morning and the evening to rejoice ;

P. And the earth has been filled with the riches of his goodness.

M. O that men would praise the Lord for his goodness,

P. And for his wonderful works to the children of men.

LXII.

BLESS the Lord, O my soul, and all that is within me, bless his holy name.

P. Bless the Lord, O my soul, and forget not all his benefits ;

M. Who forgiveth all thine iniquities : who healeth all thy diseases :

P. Who redeemeth thy life from destruction who crowneth thee with loving kindness and tender mercies :

M. Who satisfieth thy mouth with good things so that thy youth is renewed like the eagle's.

P. The Lord executeth righteousness and judgment for all that are oppressed.

M. He made known his ways unto Moses, his acts unto the children of Israel.

P. The Lord is merciful and gracious, slow to anger, and plenteous in mercy.

M. He will not always chide, neither will he keep his anger forever.

P. He hath not dealt with us after our sins nor rewarded us according to our iniquities.

M. For as the heaven is high above the earth so great is his mercy toward them that fear him.

that
P. As far as the east is from the west, so far hath he removed our transgressions from us.

ret M. Like as a father pitieth his children, so the Lord pitieth them that fear him.

P. For he knoweth our frame ; he remembereth that we are dust.

wh M. As for man, his days are as grass : as a flower of the field, so he flourisheth ;

tion:

that remember his commandments to do them.

is M. The Lord hath prepared his throne in the heavens, and his kingdom ruleth over all.

to P. Bless the Lord, ye his angels, that excel in strength, that do his commandments, hearkening unto the voice of his word.

is, M. Bless ye the Lord, all ye his hosts, ye ministers of his, that do his pleasure.

h, P. Bless the Lord, all his works in all places of his dominion : bless the Lord, O my soul.

LXIII.

THE Lord is my rock, and my fortress, and my deliverer ; my God, my strength, in whom I will trust.

P. I will call upon the Lord, who is worthy to be praised ; so shall I be saved from mine enemies.

M. The sorrows of death compassed me, and the floods of ungodly men made me afraid.

P. The sorrows of the grave compassed me about : the snares of death came upon me.

M. In my distress I called upon the Lord, and cried unto my God.

P. He heard my voice out of his temple ; and my cry came before him, even into his ears.

M. Then the earth shook and trembled ; the foundations also of the hills moved, and were shaken.

P. There went up a smoke out of his nostrils, and fire out of his mouth devoured.

M. He bowed the heavens also, and came down ; and darkness was under his feet.

P. And he rode upon a cherub, and did fly : yea, he did fly upon the wings of the wind.

M. He made darkness his hiding place, his pavilion round about him, darkness of waters and thick clouds of the skies.

P. At the brightness that was before him his thick clouds passed ; hail stones and coals of fire.

M. The Lord also thundered in the heavens, and the Highest uttered his voice ; hail stones and coals of fire.

P. Yea, he sent out his arrows, and scattered them ; and he shot out lightnings, and discomfited them.

M. Then the channels of waters were seen, and the foundations of the world were discovered at thy rebuke, O Lord, at the blast of the breath of thy nostrils.

P. He sent from above, he took me, he drew me out of many waters.

M. He delivered me from my strong enemy, and from those who hated me, for they were too strong for me.

P. He brought me forth also into a large place : he delivered me, because he delighted in me.

M. The Lord rewarded me according to my righteousness ; according to the cleanness of my hands hath he recompensed me.

P. For I have kept the ways of the Lord, and have not wickedly departed from my God.

M. Therefore hath the Lord recompensed me, and the Highest uttered his voice.

P. The Lord liveth ; and blessed be my Rock ; and let the God of my salvation be exalted.

LXIV.

BLESSED be the Lord God of Israel f everlasting to everlasting ;

P. For he hath visited and redeemed
people.

M. As he spake by the mouth of his prophets, who have been since the world bega

P. That we should serve him without fea holiness and righteousness, all the days of life.

M. And thou, child, shalt be called the pro of the Highest ;

P. For thou shalt go before the face of Lord to prepare his ways ;

M. To give knowledge of salvation unto people, for the remission of their sins,

M. He shall be great, and shall be calle Son of the Highest :

P. He shall reign forever ; and of his king there shall be no end.

M. And thou, Bethlehem, in the land of Judah, art not the least among the princes of Judah ;

P. For out of thee shall come a Governor that shall rule my people Israel.

M. And Mary said, My soul doth magnify the Lord, and my spirit doth rejoice in God my Saviour ;

P. For he that is mighty hath done me great things ; and holy is his name.

M. His mercy is on them that fear him from generation to generation.

P. He hath filled the hungry with good things, in remembrance of his mercy.

M. Now there were in the same country shepherds, abiding in the field, keeping watch over their flock by night ;

P. And lo, the angel of the Lord came upon them, and the glory of the Lord shone round about them, and they were sore afraid.

M. And the angel said unto them, Fear not ;
for behold I bring you good tidings of great joy,
which shall be to all people.

P. For unto you is born this day, in the city of David, a Saviour, who is Christ the Lord.

M. And suddenly there was with the angel a multitude of the heavenly host, praising God, and saying,

P. Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace, good will toward men.

LXV.

THE SPIRIT of the Lord is upon me, because he hath anointed me to preach good tidings unto the poor.

P. He hath sent me to bind up the broken-hearted, to comfort all that mourn ;

M. To proclaim liberty to the captives, and recovering of sight to the blind ;

P. To set at liberty those that are bruised ; to proclaim the acceptable year of the Lord ;

M. To appoint unto them that mourn in Zion, to give unto them beauty for ashes,

P. The oil of joy for mourning, the garments of praise for the spirit of heaviness ;

M. That they might be called trees of righteousness, the planting of the Lord ;

P. That he might be glorified.

M. Behold my servant whom I uphold, my elect in whom my soul delighteth.

P. I have put my spirit upon him, he shall bring forth judgment unto truth.

M. He shall not cry, nor lift up, nor cause his voice to be heard in the street.

P. A bruised reed shall he not break, and the smoking flax shall he not quench.

M. He shall not judge after the sight of his eyes, nor reprove after the hearing of his ears ;

P. But with righteousness shall he judge the poor, and reprove with equity the meek of the earth.

M. He shall judge the people with righteousness, and the poor with judgment.

P. He shall judge the poor of the people, and save the children of the needy.

M. He shall smite the earth with the rod of his mouth, and with the breath of his lips shall he slay the wicked.

P. He shall come down like rain upon the sown grass, as showers that water the earth.

M. He shall not fail, nor be discouraged, till he have set judgment in the earth, and the isles shall wait for his law.

P. He shall have dominion from sea to sea, and from the river unto the ends of the earth.

M. In his days shall the righteous flourish, and abundance of peace shall there be so long as the moon endureth.

P. The mountains shall bring peace to the people, and the little hills, by righteousness.

M. His name shall endure forever; all nations shall call him blessed and shall be blessed in him.

P. Yea, all kings shall fall down before him: all nations shall serve him.

M. & P. Blessed be his glorious name forever; and let the whole earth be filled with his glory.

LXVI.

LORD, thou hast been our dwelling place generations.

P. Before the mountains were brought for

M. Or ever thou hadst formed the earth the world,

P. Even from everlasting to everlasting, art God.

M. Thou turnest man to destruction;
sayest, Return, ye children of men.

P. For a thousand years in thy sight are as yesterday when it is past, and as a watch the night.

M. Thou carriest them away as with a flood they are as a sleep.

P. In the morning they are like grass which groweth up :

M. In the morning it flourisheth, and groweth up ;

P. In the evening it is cut down, and withereth

M. Our life is as a vapor, that appeareth little time and then vanisheth away.

P. We bring our years to an end as a tale is told.

M. Behold, thou hast made our days as a breath breadth.

P. Our days on the earth are as a shadow that passeth away.

M. The days of our years are threescore years and ten ;

P. And if by reason of strength they be fourscore years,

M. Yet is their strength labor and sorrow ;

P. For it is soon cut off, and we fly away.

M. There be many that say, Who will show us any good ?

P. Lord, lift thou up the light of thy countenance upon us.

M. O satisfy us early with thy mercy ;

P. That we may rejoice and be glad all our days.

M. Make us glad according to the days wherein thou hast afflicted us,

P. And the years wherein we have seen evil.

M. So teach us to number our days that we may apply our hearts unto wisdom.

P. Let thy work appear unto thy servants, and thy glory unto their children ;

M. And let the beauty of the Lord our God be upon us ;

P. And establish thou the work of our hands upon us ;

M. & P. Yea, the work of our hands establish thou it.

LXVII.

PRAISE ye the Lord. Praise ye the Lord from the heavens : praise him in the height

P. Praise ye him, all his angels : praise ye him, all his hosts.

M. Praise ye him, sun and moon : praise him all ye stars of light.

P. Praise him ye heavens of heavens, and ye waters that be above the heavens.

M. Let them praise the name of the Lord ; for he commanded, and they were created.

P. He hath also established them for ever and ever : he hath made a decree which shall not pass.

M. Praise the Lord from the earth, ye dragons and all deeps :

P. Fire, and hail ; snow, and vapour ; storm wind fulfilling his word :

M. Mountains, and all hills ; fruitful trees, and all cedars :

P. Beasts, and all cattle ; creeping thing and flying fowl :

M. Kings of the earth, and all people ; princes and all judges of the earth :

P. Both young men, and maidens ; old men and children :

M. & P. Let them praise the name of the Lord ; for his name alone is excellent : his glory is above the earth and heaven.
